

Embracing the Light of Peace and Unity

Greetings Everyone,

As the sun reaches its highest point, bathing Earth in its radiant embrace, we celebrate the Summer Solstice here in the western hemisphere, as our friends in the southern hemisphere celebrate the Winter Solstice. This is a sacred time of renewal, illumination, and transformation. This celestial event reminds us of the eternal light within each of us, guiding our journey toward peace, love, and harmony.

In a world often consumed by discord, let us pause and embrace a higher path—one where unity reigns and compassion flourishes. The teachings of TELOS offer a profound blueprint for ascension, urging us to elevate our consciousness and awaken to Christ's love, uniting all beings across dimensions.

🌿 Ways to Cultivate Peace on Earth:

- Align with Nature: Spend time in the natural world, honoring its wisdom and balance. Walk barefoot on the earth, listen to the whispering winds, and connect with the heartbeat of life.
- Practice Loving Kindness: A simple smile, a kind word, a moment of genuine presence—these small acts ripple outward, creating waves of peace.
- Meditate on Unity: Visualize the golden light of peace embracing the planet, dissolving barriers and uniting all souls in love.
- Live in Harmony: Choose sustainable, mindful ways of living that honor the sacred bond between humanity and Earth.

This Solstice, let us come together in celebration of the Golden Age of Enlightenment— an era where love triumphs, peace prevails, and true brotherhood flourishes. As we hold the vision of planetary ascension, may our hearts shine as brightly as the midsummer sun.

To help you along, don't forget to pick up copies of the Telos books— Volumes 1, 2, and 3, plus THE SEVEN SACRED FLAMES and ANGELO'S MESSAGE (a message from the animal kingdom for all people), by Aurelia Louise Jones.

These books are invaluable for the wisdom and information that we need to help us and our planet now.

Together, we illuminate the path forward. May this Solstice awaken the divine within and inspire a radiant future for all.
KEEP SHINING YOUR LIGHT!
